GREAT CROWD AT AQUEDUCT

Prospect of Seeing Two Cracks Clash the Attracting Magnet.

John P. Grier Leads Cirrus All the Way in the Edgemere Handicap.

NEW YORK, N. Y., September 18.—An immense Saturday crowd was out at Aqueduct this afternoon to see a good card of races decided. The feature of the program, the Edgemere Handicap, with $3,500 added, brought only two to the post. John P. Grier ruled favorite over Cirrus and, leading all the way, won under restraint after a shaking up an eighth out. The two were close together for the entire way, with John P. Grier slightly in the lead. They came into the stretch like a team, but Cirrus began laboring when near home.

Le Glorieux, an odds-on choice, took the third race, a dash of a mile for platers. Burgoyne made the pace, closely attended by Mose. The former retired when an eighth out, where Le Glorieux, which had been under restraint, took the lead and won without trouble. Mose held on gamely and retained second place, with Tan II. third. Paddy Dear, about which there was some activity, was never dangerous. Ting-a-Ling wheeled as the barrier went up and was left at the post.

The steeplechase proved easy for the Greentree stable's Flare, with Rupica second and Frank B. third. Sweepment, which was leading to near the last jump, fell at that obstacle. His rider, W. Blake, escaped with a slight shaking up. Rupica was in the lead when coming over the last jump, but Flare easily disposed of him on the flat.

Jockey Ensor, who had the mount on Fluff in the opening dash, was unseated at the start when general crowding for positions came. Jockey E. Ambrose, who was astride Wedgwood, caused the unseating of Ensor when his mount suddenly jumped into Fluff. The winner turned up in Vista, which ran in the colors of J. W. McClelland. Vista followed Wedgwood and took the lead when Wedgwood tired. Vista's margin at the finish was only a half length, however, for Ballynew was overhauling her rapidly. Superb showed a good performance in taking third place.

The stewards suspended jockey Ambrose for six days for interfering with jockey Ensor's mount in the first race. Ensor was only slightly shaken up by the fall, but canceled his engagements for the day.

C. Buxton claimed Le Glorieux out of the third race for $2,255.

LEXINGTON'S FINE OPENING

Big Crowd Sees Busy Signal Win the Feature Race Easily in Fast Time.

(BY J. L. DEMPSEY.)

LEXINGTON, Ky., September 18.—E. R. Bradley's crack filly Busy Signal accounted for the Phoenix Hotel Handicap at a mile and a sixteenth, which featured today's inauguration of the autumn season of Kentucky racing at the historic Lexington course. Her race was one of her best, for she shoulder 114 pounds and conceded weight to the other starters and ran the distance in 1:44⅘, two-fifths of a second from the track record. Her performance was the more noteworthy from the fact that she was made much use of at the post through her own stubbornness in her refusal to keep straight. The start was effected after a delay of seven minutes, with Sands of Pleasure momentarily in the lead, but Busy Signal at once took command and led to the finish, winning ultimately by four lengths from Clintonville. Sands of Pleasure landed in third place. Gloomy Gus at one time figured prominently in the running, but when beginning the stretch drive he tired fast and brought up far in the rear.

The semi-annual meeting of members of the Thoroughbred Horse Association will be held next Wednesday evening at the Phoenix Hotel.

William Woodard, trainer of the five horses entered by the Thoroughbred Endurance Test Club to start in the 300-mile race for the Mounted Service Cup next month, writes from Putney, Vt., that his charges are in excellent condition and training satisfactorily.

E. F. Simms has arrived at his Xalapa Farm in Bourbon County from New York.

Jockey Lunsford today bought his contract from Will Perkins and will ride as a free lance.

Many of the members comprising the directorate of the Kentucky Jockey Club were on hand for the opening, having motored from Louisville, Covington and other points.

The mutuel staff comprised 150 persons and all were kept active for the entire afternoon.

W. F. Polson will be in charge of his own horses until he can replace trainer Simms, who resigned.

Messrs. Hunter, Pollard, Keene and McDowell of the Kentucky State Racing Commission were among the visitors.

The following licenses were granted by the Racing Commission at its meeting this morning: Trainers, W. F. Taylor, Thos. Johnson, J. Beasley, W. F. Polson; jockeys, J. Burke, G. Mangan.

KENTUCKY RACING COMMISSION MEETS

LEXINGTON, Ky., September 18.—The Kentucky State Racing Commission, Chairman J. N. Camden absent, with Vice-Chairman J. O. Keene presiding and Messrs. T. C. McDowell, Ernest Pollard and Robert W. Hunter present, met this morning to take up the complaint made by Sheriff Bill Ross of Louisville against the further employment of C. E. Floyd by the Kentucky Jockey Club as a patrol. Ross not being present the matter was deferred indefinitely.

The stewards of the Kentucky Jockey Club reported that the suspension of the horse Jack Stuart has expired.

MAN O' WAR THE INVINCIBLE

Champion Gives Thirty Pounds and a Decisive Beating to Wildair in Potomac Handicap at Havre de Grace.

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., September 18.—Man o' War cannot be beaten. That is the only opinion left after watching the champion shoulder 138 pounds and win the Potomac Handicap here this afternoon. The son of Fair Play made all the pace and eased up, defeating Wildair in the fast time of 1:44⅘, reducing the track record by one-fifth of a second. Man o' War's margin of victory over the Whitney colt today was a length and a half. Ral Parr's Blazes was fifteen lengths behind Wildair and finished two lengths in advance of his stablemate, Paul Jones, the Kentucky Derby winner.

The largest crowd in the history of the Havre de Grace race course assembled to pay tribute to Mr. Riddle's champion. Program sales indicate the crowd was one of the largest ever brought together in Maryland to witness horse racing. Long before the first race the grounds were filled apparently to capacity. Still a steady stream of humanity poured through the gates, eager to see the great colt perform.

While the great crowd came to see Man o' War it was not lukewarm in its praise of the spirited racing in the other contests of the afternoon. In both the third and fourth races the results were in doubt until the final strides, Napthalius scoring by a head in the third and Mildred by a similar margin in the fourth.

W. A. Buck claimed War Smoke from Ral Parr for $1,950.

E. K. Bryson bought Tingling from T. Clyde for $2,700.

J. H. Loucheim's two-year-old Tenite, which was operated on recently for a wind affection, is reported as doing well at J. S. Barbee's farm in Kentucky.

Frankie Kehoe came over from Laurel today and accepted three mounts.

Jockey Coltiletti returned from Belmont Park to ride Wildair in the Potomac Handicap.

O. E. Depper of the Asbury stable is here endeavoring to buy three or four horses for winter racing.

S. A. Clopton has disposed of Leviathan to Matt Smart, who will school him through the field.

A. Swenke claimed Fizer from W. Stockton for $1,700.

C. Houpre is training the Swenke horses, among others, and is expected to have a strong stable for campaigning at New Orleans next winter.

GREAT CROWD AT DORVAL

MONTREAL, Quebec, September 18.—Today's racing at the Dorval course was witnessed by the largest gathering in the history of the club, over 10,000 people passing through the turnstiles. No special feature was carded for decision, but a well-balanced card of seven races made up the program and the racing was spirited throughout. The going had dried out considerably on top and led the talent astray, with the result that the winners paid handsome dividends.

A sharp shower set in following the running of the fourth race and drove the large crowd to shelter, but did not alter the track conditions.

Foxhaven, ridden by Dreyer, upset the talent in the opening dash, winning with ease over the favorite Jacobean and Mary Cowell. Reconnaissance failed in the second dash, Mad May, a cast-off from the Ross establishment, winning.

Joe Dreyer again handed the talent a jolt in the running of the fourth when he landed Resist home in a drive from Salvatelle and Sedan.

C. W. Penniston of this city, who some years back raced a powerful stable of steeplechasers, was a visitor at the track today. He is in the market to purchase promising three-year-old material for development into jumpers for next year.

Three carloads of horses arrived from Toronto this morning. In the band were campaigners owned by J. S. Baldwin, J. Lewis, J. N. Pinkham, H. G. Woods, G. P. Montgomery and M. M. Shields.

Owner, J. S. Whatley has followed up every known clue unsuccessfully in the search for the plater Fair and Warmer. A report that the mare had been located proved erroneous.

P. S. Delaney, who trains a public stable for several local enthusiasts, is also on the lookout for promising timber-topper material.

Jockey J. Dreyer is in offer of a contract to ride for B. Mock during the coming winter season at Oriental Park, Havana.

GOOD SPORT AT THORNCLIFFE

TORONTO, Ontario, September 18.—An immense crowd gathered at Thorncliffe Park today and witnessed the decision of a well-arranged program of seven races, of which the Thorncliffe Autumn Handicap was the feature. In a sensational finish Bobby Allen was returned the winner of the event, defeating Alvord by the shortest of margins, with Eulah F. in third place and right at their heels.

J. McIlmurray's Biddledee established a new track record of, 1:43⅖ for the mile and seventy yards when she showed the way throughout and easily won the sixth race from Blaise and Kentucky Boy.

Acting for P. J. Sullivan, H. Raines today sold Dairyman to Doc Purcell and Pluviada to J. S. Baldwin. The latter shipped two of his string to Dorval Park last night, while the others are destined for the Chagrin Falls meeting near Cleveland.

Bradley Wilson, general manager of Devonshire Park at Windsor, was a visitor here today; also S. W. Holman, who is promoting the half-mile meeting at Chagrin Falls, Ohio.

G. J. Wagnon was an arrival from Kentucky, where he went to inspect eleven yearlings, the property of the Pelican Stable.

Latonia spring meeting this system picked 88 horses, with only 11 out of the money; of the first 26 horses it picked there was only one out of the money; at another time it had 22 with only one loser. The one best bet had three losers the entire meeting. It hasn't had over two losers in succession at any track this season. If it hasn't done just as I say I will gladly return your money. FOR SALE, RELIABLE INFORMATION—If you are willing to send me an advance payment of Fifteen Dollars, to cover initial cost of obtaining same, I will wire you about ten or twelve horses at Laurel meeting, and I am confident they will average at least 50 per cent winners at good prices. Among them is a two-year-old colt which has received a thorough conditioning at Saratoga and will start for the first time at this meeting. Another is a three-year-old plater, the cheapest horse in the barn, which will be placed in the right spot at Laurel. The names of these two will be mailed you the last week in this month. You are to play ten for me on all I send, deducting $15 from the first winner. Mail name and address, and wire money to John J. McCarthy, 10 Martense St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
